

Hi, I'm Sarah (Saz). I'm a highly experienced Ukulele Teacher, Artist, and Community Leader based in Glasgow. Over the past decade I've steadily grown my ukulele classes from scratch, and three years ago I took the plunge and went full-time.

Now, I run two popular Ukulele jam nights; Southside Strummers and Rainbow Ukes. I'm continually expanding my music career, and building my Ukulele school for Kids and Adults in Shawlands.

Teaching is my passion. There's nothing more rewarding than watching my students believe in themselves, grow in confidence, and connect with others. I strive to make my classes as inclusive as possible, always considering different learning styles and needs.

I've performed and led workshops at ukulele festivals all over the UK, sharing my love of music and helping others discover the joy of the Ukulele, and making music.
